THE PEAK

MORE

TAZEWELL HIGH SCHOOL — 1993 — 1994 —
TAZEWELL, VIRGINIA

THE PEAK:

"1 MORE TIME"

THIS

1'S

FOR YOU, MISS YOST

Six years ago, and fresh out of college, a new social studies teacher joined the faculty of Tazewell High School. It didn't take long for Miss Lori Yost to become a hit with both students and teachers (one teacher in particular). To observe her during a typical day at T.H.S. would provide a lesson in excellence of instruction, but also in dedication to the task and in teacher/student rapport. Miss Yost is one of the "sunrise crew", arriving at school often before daylight in order to prepare for the day at hand. Yet, as the hours drag on and tempers fray, she always manages to wear a smile and to speak a kind word. Miss Yost's students will always remember her for her "quizzie-poos," her addressing us as "guys and dolls," and her desk lined with photos of nieces and nephews. We appreciate her way of pushing us to succeed, whether in U.S. History classes, or in Model U.N. or the S.C.A. We can also always count on her to wear Tazewell green and to support all of our Bulldog activities. Tazewell High School is truly privileged to have Miss Yost as teacher, advisor, and friend.

Miss Yost and some guy (just kidding, Mr. Moss!)

Carrying out duties of the SCA sponsor.

Exchanging gifts at a faculty party

A familiar scene in Miss Yost's classroom.

All dressed up! (Chaperoning the Prom)

"Little kids are so much better behaved than U.S. History students!"

"That's not right!" (Serving as judge for Beta Bowl.)

Miss Yost also teaches younger children.

Of course we're working!

"Shhhhh!"

Don't we look impressive?

Always surrounded by students.

HAVING

GREAT TIME

"And did you hear . . .?"

Rootin' and tootin' for the home team.

"Don't kiss me now; she's got the camera."

"Mommy!"

Celebrating a teammate's win.

"No, we don't have a hall pass, but we're thirsty!"

"Voice, don't fail me now!"

Everybody loves us when we win.

New I.S.S. arrangements?

"We're all wrapped up in our work."

It's a Spanish cultural activity — don't ask!

Freshman P.E.: our chance to play!

"Good one, Shae!"

"Hide — it's that camera person again!"

"I can't believe they gave us plastic flowers!"

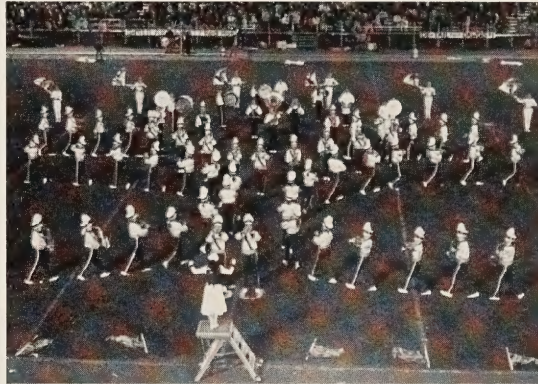

David and Jeff have never been surrounded by so many sweet things.

"If he pushes her off, we weren't looking."

Jerry Peery and the Main Event

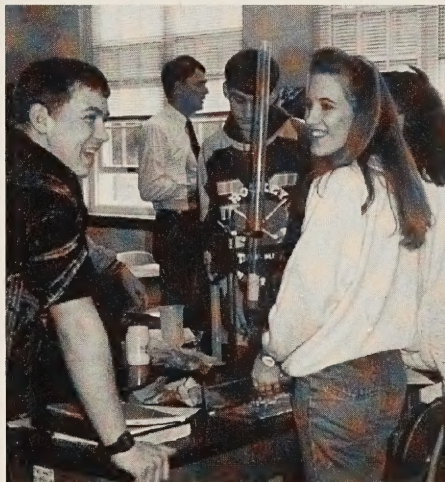

"Help, Mr. French, they're all going in different directions."

"Believe me; I didn't do it!"

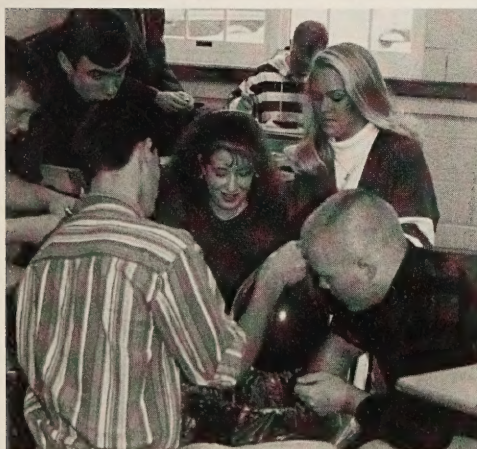

"Hold still, Amber, we're designing a centerfold."

"I never knew Mr. Nicholson could be so funny."

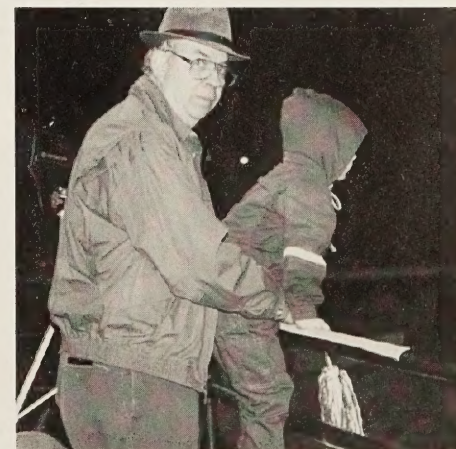

Mothers and sons: a team you can count on.

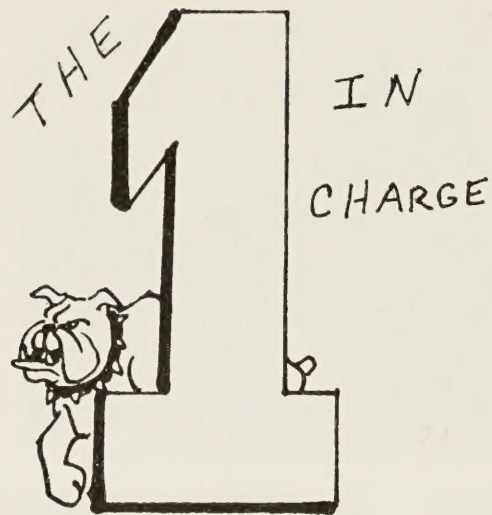

It's a pinata . . . before. . .

My other job is Grandpa!

All laid back!

Don't resist me!

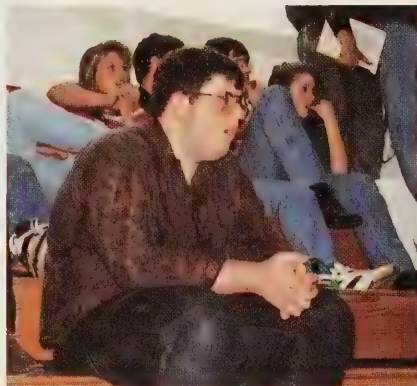

Just chillin'!

But Mrs. Campbell, I can't read your writing.

Rock Painters, Incorporated!

How did they do that?

Are we missing some people?

Yes, Jeff, we know you have spirit!

I refuse to play this song!

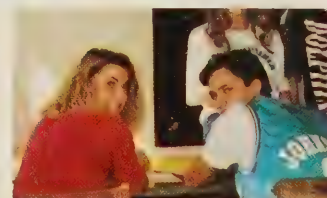

PEACE!

This is great!

I have a question.

Erin, is this how you spell my name?

You too? I thought it was just me!

Who didn't use Crest?

Which way should I go?

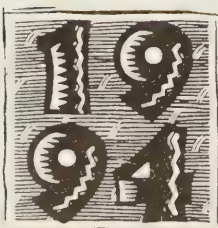

No dancing, Christy?

Look at those legs!

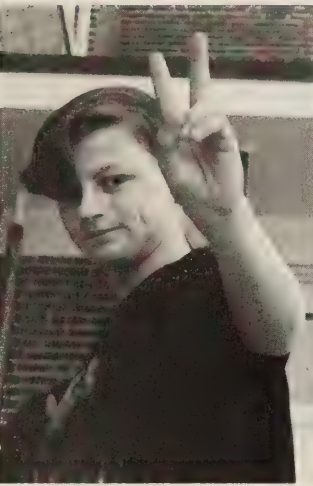

That's John's best side!

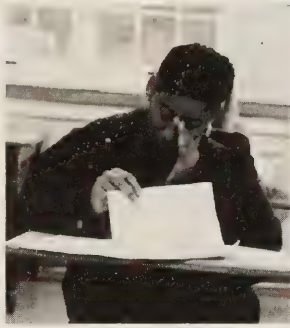

MORE DAY AT T.H.S.

Peace!

"I'm awake!"

"If you staple my finger, you die!"

Real cool "Kick me" sign, Bobby?

"Mm. . . mm. . . good!"

"I need a dentist."

Faces of concentration.

"I can't believe you have that camera in here!"

Daydreaming?

More what?

Twin day?

Asleep at the keyboard.

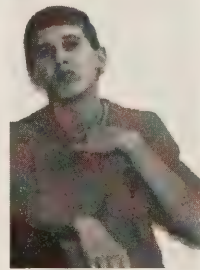

"Did you hear the one about . . .?"

Just hangin' around!

Mirror, mirror, on the wall . . .

It's just a little rash.

Only 10 more minutes!

"Don't laugh at me, guys!"

Say cheese!

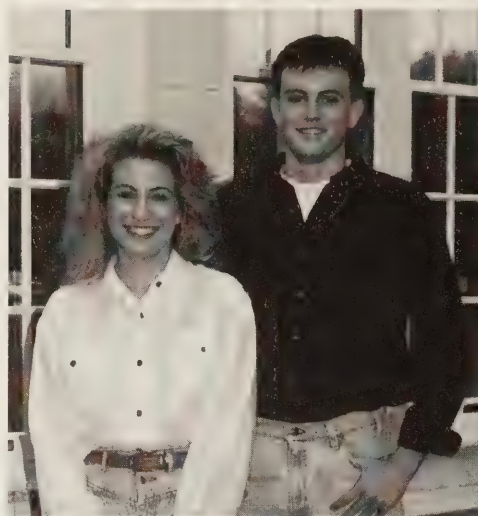

"Wait until the question is asked before buzzing in, please."

Kevin blows his horn, contributing to the "One in a Million" sound of the T.H.S. Band.

Our very own celebrity Mr. Hypes announces for assembly.

Mr. Chapman, Honorary Sweetheart Court member!

Those who study seem sometimes all alone.

"I can't believe it!"

A "one-in-a-million" shot? Not for Shonda!

Yes, it's that "one-in-a-million" smile, for his favorite photographer!

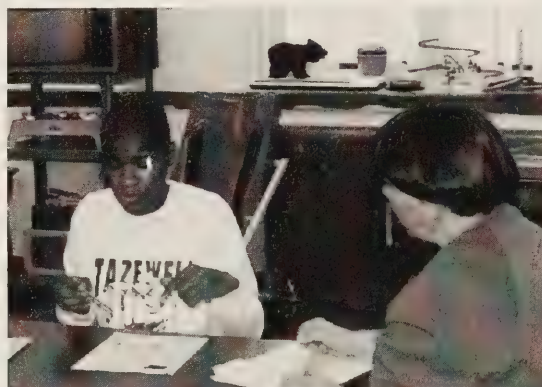

"You're my very best friend; give me five!"

Touchdown!

Regina has a leg up on the competition.

Rondale applies "one-in-a-million" determination to the task.

WE REMEMBER DEWAYNE August 31, 1977 — November 8, 1993

DEWAYNE LAMBRIGHT

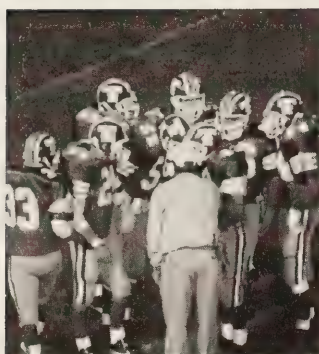

Paula works hard on her studies.

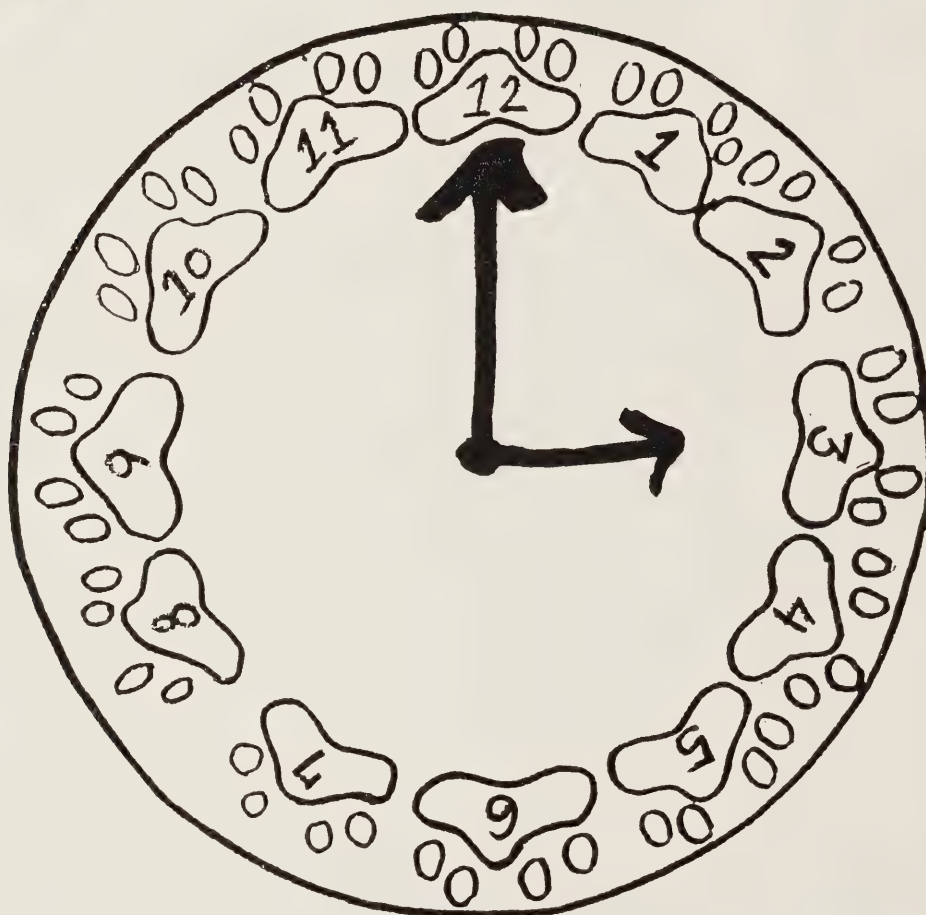

Room 1 experienced great sadness with the death of Dewayne Lambright this year. Dewayne always brightened our lives with his hats, his laughter, and his obvious love of the other kids in class. His competitive spirit was an inspiration to all. All T.H.S. students would do well to take a lesson from Dewayne's positive attitude, hard work, and enjoyment of life.

This year's one-act play, "The Five-Pound Sack," was a comedy involving high school students who, as a class assignment, must care for a sack of flour as though it were an infant, and how one young man reluctantly accepts "fatherhood" when his assigned "baby" is "flour-napped." The play received several awards in both District and Regional levels of competition. Erin Gibson was chosen Best Actress in both the District and Region. These two projects require that they develop skills in filming, interviewing, and presenting the news. It has been a definite prime time experience!

FOR THE RECORD

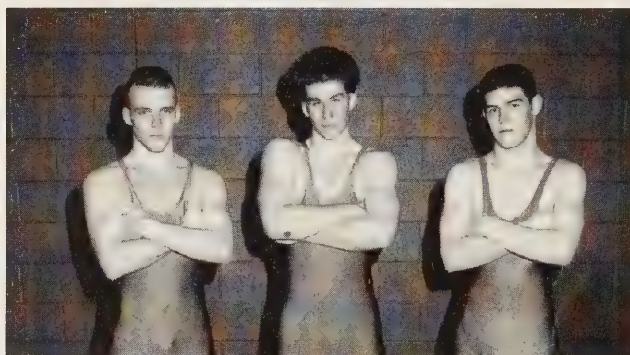

FOOTBALL TEAM MAKES IT INTO PLAYOFFS

This year's team had some bad breaks and misfortunes, but the players did not quit and put it a great effort at the end of the season to pull out a 4-7 record and go to the first round of playoff action. Coach Tolley commented, "We're losing some quality men, but have a nucleus returning that will be a very solid team." SWD Honors: 1st Team — Howery; 2nd — McPherson, Martin, Brooks, Eberhardt; Hon. Ment. — Keene, Wimmer, Watkins, McGuire.

GRAPPLERS PIN A WINNING SEASON

Bulldog wrestlers fought off frustrations of weather cancellations to complete their regular season with a 7-4 record, including a record-breaking 71-3 win over district rival G.H.S., then earned three 2nd and eight 3rd place berths in the SWD. In Region IV, Cummins, Linkous, McPherson, and Hrovatic all received medals, with McPherson and Hrovatic also qualifying for State Competition.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL GIVES IT THEIR BEST SHOT

VARSITY LADY DOGS SHOOT FOR GOAL

Varsity: The Lady Dogs finished the year with an 8-12 record (1-5 in the district.) They were a good group who faced some disappointments and bad breaks. Honors: Shonda Wilson — 1st SWD and Region Teams; Starr Anderson — 2nd SWD, Jennifer Call, Jill O'Quin and Ashley Mustard — Honorable Mention." Junior Varsity: This group also played well. They had a 13-9 record and were second in the SWD.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM MAKES THE PLAY

Varsity: The team had a 15-6 record for the regular season. They also came out with a 4-2 SWD record, and broke some county records as well: Mike Hairston — 19 assists in one game; Kon Patterson — seven 3-pointers in one game; total points in a game (96).

Junior Varsity: This team played very well, ending regular season play with a 13-5 record, 5-1 in the district, and claiming the SWD title.

VOLLEYBALL GIRLS ACE DISTRICT TITLE

Varsity: The team finished with a 9-5 overall season, and a perfect 3-0 SWD record, capturing the District title and advancing to Regionals. Honors: Angie Lester — Hitter of the Year; Starr Anderson and Lester — 1st SWD Team; Amie Abrahams, Shonda Wilson, and Jennifer Duty — 2nd SWD Team; Nigel Thompson — Honorable Mention.

Junior Varsity: This year's team was young, but showed determination despite finishing the year at 4-10. They expect to return next year with experience and dedication.

GOLF TEAM SWINGS INTO ACTION

This was a young team which finished 18-17 overall and third in the District Tournament. Jamie Hannah, Steven Brewster, and Chad Harmon advanced to Regionals, and Hannah also qualified for State competition where he placed 34th of 76 participants.

BAND MARCHES TO A WINNING TUNE

The Marching Bulldog Band began the year with a great performance as they hosted the first-ever band festival held in Tazewell. They also attended the George Wythe Festival where they received 3rd place percussion, a Division 1 rating, and 3rd place band. They also went to competition at Concord College where they earned 1st place overall, percussion, drum major, auxiliary, and music, as well as taking home the Band of the Day award. As always, their halftime show was a crowd-pleaser.

LAST PEAK

"What's so funny?"

"Uh, don't touch my hair!"

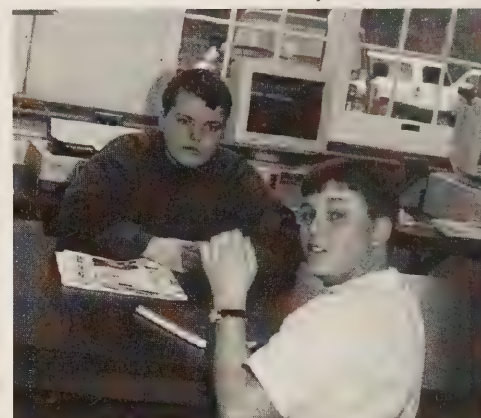

Mrs. Davis is caught on the other side of the camera.

Devoted fans.

"You did WHAT?"

Having fun yet?

T.H.S. Supreme Court

"And where are you supposed to be?"

"We're in no hurry!"

T.H.S. Band puts on a show!

Mrs. Whittaker, is that really you?

SPLAT!

AT 1993-94.

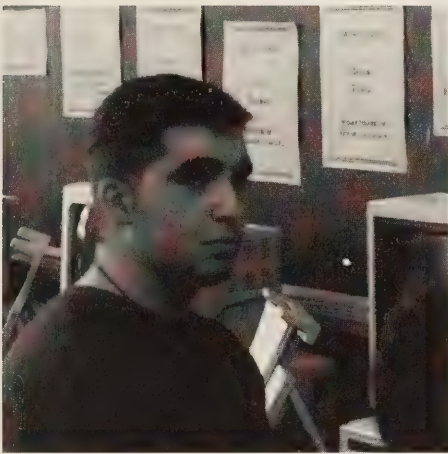

Caught in the act!

Male bonding?

Hey, Hey, Hey!

I think my computer's broken.

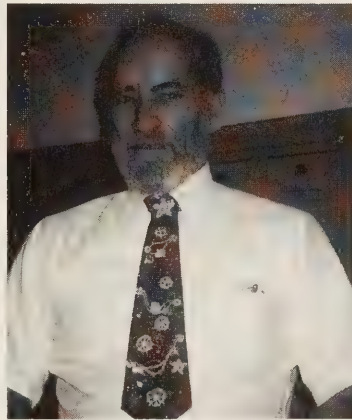

You put the comma here. . .

Can we put some pep in this rally?

Just one big happy family here!

"Please give me some!"

"Where is the end of the cord?"

Why is she the only one laughing?

Secretaries in the making?

UPON A TIME . . .

UNLIKELY TALES OF LIFE AT T.H.S.

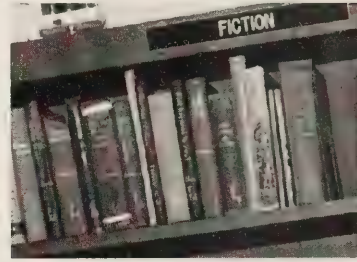

... all couples observed the "no-touch" rule.

... the entire class paid attention.

... a Peak staffer was rescued from The Peak.

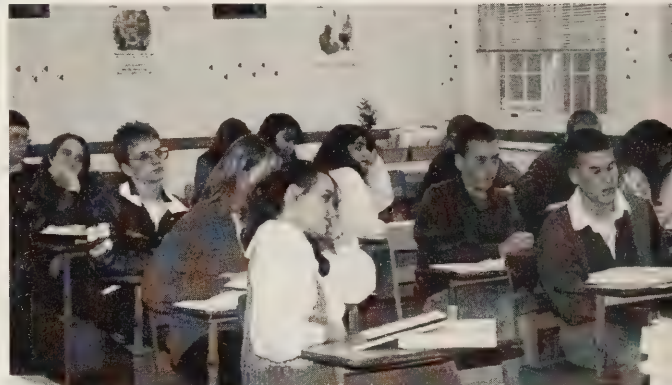

... library shelves were packed with the latest best-sellers.

... class change allowed plenty of time to catch up on all the news.

... the cafeteria served gourmet food.

... classroom activities were lively and entertaining.

... a T.H.S. student won the Nobel Prize for chemistry.

... students prepared all homework before the last minute.

... students filed out in orderly fashion for a fire drill.

... class continued uninterrupted when the photographer entered.

... students were enthused about learning!

... and they all lived happily ever after!

CAROUSEL

I think I need help.

I hope this color looks right.

We thought the Prom was tonight.

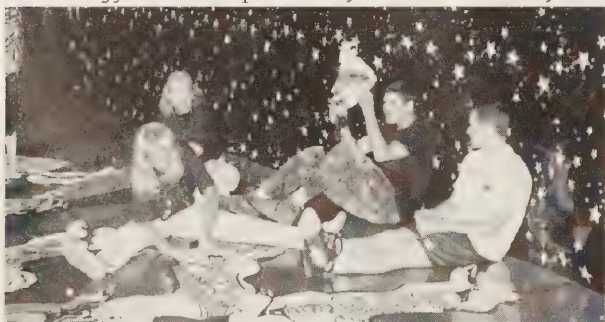

Successfully covering the bleachers.

This is ugly; let's cover it up!

Why didn't we order this already black?

Let's turn this into a costume party.

Wake me when it's time to go home.

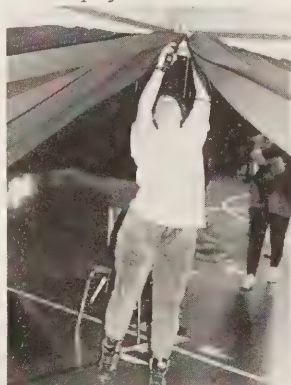

I can't seem to find the tree.

We're taking a break!

Are we cutting this right?

The beginning of a masterpiece.

Can't wait for tomorrow night!

This reminds me of the May Pole.

Hard work never looked so fun!

Who gave me the wrong color paint?

OF DREAMS

We finally made it!

Cheese!

She busted my lip!

Hold me close!

Have you seen my date?

Get down!

You're so funny, Shannon!

Watch your step!

No line dancing tonight!

Why is everyone looking at us?

Honey, remember OUR prom?

May I take this home?

The Carousel of Dreams

We look great together!

Girl talk.

Can I blow in your ear?

We all look so great!

I lost my wallet.

Piggin' out.

Laid back!

SPRING DAY

Thousands of students in 50 states and 24 countries competed April 20 in the 22nd Knowledge Master Open Academic Competition. A team of T.H.S. students (below) scored 1319 of a possible 2000 points, ranking 449 out of 1580 high schools of comparable size. Congratulations!

The 1994 SCA elections were a great example of democracy in action. Various students and school interests were represented. As usual, the hard work of campaigning was blended with fun, laughter, and good times.

The MORP (Prom spelled backwards) Dance was a success.

This year's Odyssey of the Mind team was assigned the problem "Set it Free." They were required to build a balsa structure with a ping pong ball enclosed. The T.H.S. team tied for 1st Place in the Region, and participated in State Competition in April.

The Boys' Track Team unloaded 5000 lbs of food in less than 15 minutes, as a community service to the local Food Pantry.

WE'RE #1 IN PROMISES!

Grim reapers and their victims.

We're coming to get you!

Nice knowing you, Brooke!

Will waits for help to arrive.

Congratulations are in order for Prom Promise! Out of hundreds of schools, T.H.S. became a Virginia Grand Champion. 99.9% of the student body signed the promise to remain drug and alcohol free on Prom night. As a result, the school won $3750, T-shirts for all students that signed, and a plaque. Look for the picture of the student body in Grand Champion t-shirts (in T formation) on page 24.

LAST TIME TOGETHER

Officers preside over Senior Banquet.

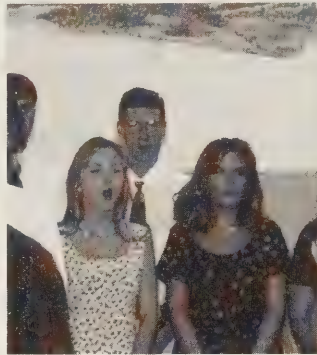

Eat now; talk later.

They can make us stand here, but they can't make us sing!

Is the world ready for these guys?
